Resumé

I am a Brazilian Lawyer, who enjoys writing and interacting with foreign people. Also, I love studying international languages and sharing knowledge. I speak English, French, a bit of Spanish, and Brazilian Portuguese.

Currently, I am based in Curitiba, that is a city in the south of Brazil. I have a Law degree by Federal University of Rio de Janeiro (UFRJ) and a postgraduate degree in Practical Law by Escola da Magistratura do Paraná. Also, I have studied International Business (postgraduate course) at IBMEC.

I have license to represent clients in Brazilian courts by Ordem dos Advogados do Brasil (OAB).

I have interest in job opportunities as Paralegal, Foreign Legal Assistant, or other related to international affairs/entry-level jobs.

I am open to be trained in new subjects and moving to a new city.
